

Self-awareness

Hedgehogs represent self-awareness.
Through them we learn to believe in ourselves and understand who we are.

self-control

questioning

reflective

confidence

happiness

emotional well-being

caring

healthy

individuality

keeping safe

Challenge

Snow Leopards represent challenge.

Through them we learn to be resilient individuals in order to solve problems in our learning and in our everyday lives.

resilience

inquisition

adaptability

bravery

problem solving

risk taking

determination

aspiration

independence

initiative

Creativity

Spiders represent creativity.

Through them we learn to express ourselves in an individual and original manner.

originality

design

experimentation

curiosity

flair

composition

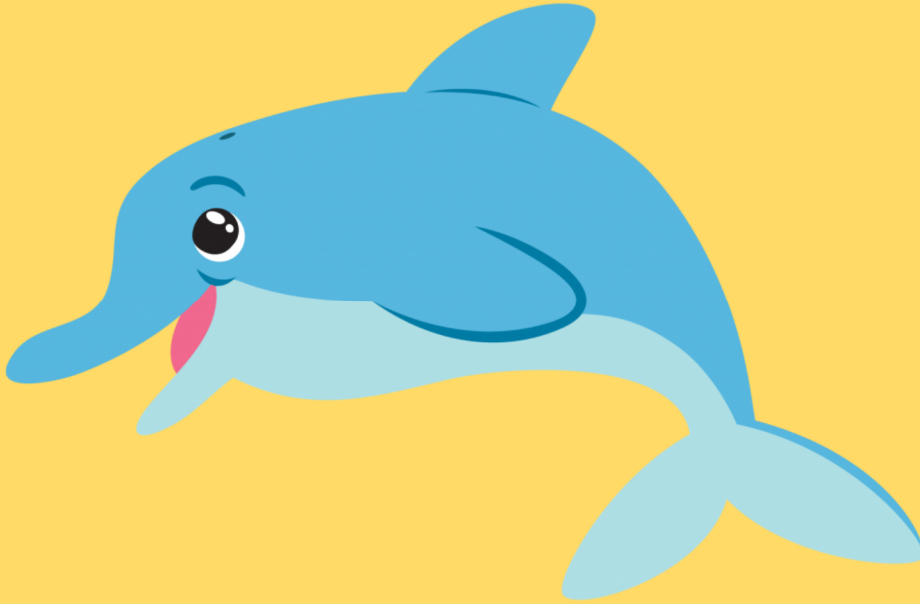

individuality

imagination

innovation

expression

Community

Dolphins represent community.

Through them we learn to respect and work with others and develop skills to become valuable members of society.

leadership

responsibility

understanding the world

tolerance

trust

communication

friendship

diversity

teamwork

respect